

Dog friendly places to eat

- The Ring of Bells in Bank Street is a dog friendly pub and will offer a warm welcome for a drink and a meal in St Columb Major.
- Town & Country Kitchen is an independent coffee shop in the heart of St Columb Major. It is great homemade food and a lovely atmosphere.
- The Blue Bar, Porthtowan is a casual friendly place to eat right on the edge of the beach.
- The Beach Hut, Watergate Bay – an original beach hangout blending local ingredients with international cuisine from Mexico, Asia, Italy and more. A lovely setting to enjoy a meal.
- The Fort Inn, Newquay – with great views overlooking Newquay it's a good place to grab a quick bite to eat, dogs are allowed in the bar area.
- Trevisker Garden Centre – Café, Padstow - An ideal lunch spot after a walk along the beach at Harlyn or Padstow. Once you've eaten why not take a look around the Garden Centre and other shops.
- Carnon Downs Garden Centre, Truro – A lovely garden centre with it's own restaurant offering a great selection of hot and cold food.
- Healey's Cornish Cyder Farm, Penhallow - A family run farm that's been making award winning cyders, wines, spirits, juices, preserves and sauces for nearly 40 years. Take a tour or just enjoy a meal in the restaurant. Day tickets will need to be purchased but can be upgraded to an annual pass.
