

Dog Friendly places to visit

Please double check booking requirements before you travel and also note that dogs must be kept on a lead at all of the places listed:

The Eden Project – St Austell

An unforgettable experience in an epic location. Its home is a dramatic global garden the size of thirty football pitches, nestling like a lost world in a crater overlooking St Austell Bay. One of its giant conservatories is a majestic rainforest cathedral, the other is host to the fruits of the Mediterranean and the flowers of South Africa and California.

Lanhydrock – Bodmin

Once a family home where everyone had their place, Lanhydrock is now a place for everyone. Set in 900 acres of woods and parkland running down to the Fowey river and encircled by formal and woodland gardens, Lanhydrock is lovely in all seasons.

Pendennis Castle – Falmouth

Situated on a headland with breathtaking views out to sea, Pendennis Castle is one of Henry VIII's finest coastal fortresses. The castle has defended Cornwall since Tudor times, and played a vital role during the two World Wars.

The Lost Gardens of Heligan – Pentewan

Heligan is a garden for all seasons, so whether you plan to visit in the hazy buzz of mid-summer, or the tranquillity of winter, you are guaranteed a unique experience.

Trebah Gardens – Mawnan Smith

Discover the magic of this beautiful valley garden with over four miles of footpaths. Explore under canopies bursting with exotic blooms. Follow vibrant tunnels of colour that cascade to a private secluded beach on the Helford River. Trebah is a family and dog friendly garden.

Flambards - Helston

For a fun filled day out for all ages why not head to Flambards. It not only has rides to enjoy but a Victorian village that walks you through life as a Victorian along with Britain in the Blitz. A real day out not to be missed. Stay all day and make sure you see the spectacular fireworks to finish the day on a high. Well behaved dogs are welcome but must be kept on a short lead.
